Firebelly Finds Anarchists and Peasants and Wood Demons--Oh My!

When a charismatic nihilist intent on “tearing down the world” comes to stay with the family of his best friend, preconceptions about identity, social class, and traditional values (and sometimes even the kitchenware) shatter. Firebelly Productions presents Nothing Sacred, Canadian playwright George F. Walker’s witty take on characters from Ivan Turgenev’s 1862 novel, Fathers and Sons. This “serious comedy” will intrigue high schoolers and adults alike.

Sixteen performances, from October 11 – Nov. 4 2006 at Theatre on the Run, 3700 South Four Mile Run Drive, Arlington, VA 22206.

Thursdays-Saturdays at 8 pm, Sundays at 2 pm.

Tickets: $15 adults, $12 students and seniors. Special rates for seniors on Sundays of $5. Group rates available. Tickets usually available at the door; box office opens one hour to performance time. Or, order online: firebellyproductions.net via Instantseats. Call for details: 703.409.2372
